MAY 2012

2013 Calendar

With the sad state we find our town in following the last couple of years of disasters, we have decided that our calendar for next year will feature Rangiora. So, if you have any existing work reminiscent of our town Quilliam will be delighted to photograph it. In addition the focus of our next four weeks will be on the town. Quilliam is leading sessions on perspective on May 8 and 15 and hopes you may have some photos of the town you can bring. The following two weeks will also have Rangiora as a theme.

Tuesday Tutorials

May 8 and 15 Perspective (led by Quilliam)
May 22 and 29 Rangiora (or Bones and Skulls as previously advertised)
June 5 and 12 Paintings in two colours
June 19 and 26 In the style of Picasso
July 3 and 10 "The Masters" painted and drawn upside down
July 17 and 24 Doors

Waimakariri Creative Arts (Prosser Quirke) – 18 to 20 May.

This show is coming up quickly now. Unfortunately, because of the large number of entries we have received, we have had to reduce paintings to a maximum of two per exhibitor.

Paintings must be brought to the Centre between 8.30 and 10am on Thursday 17 May. They must be professionally presented and no wet paintings will be accepted.

We will be asking members to help with raffle sales (Wed 16th 12 -2.30pm outside New World) and with manning the exhibition Friday and Sunday 1 - 4 pm.

All members are invited to the opening at 7pm on Thursday 17 May at the Chervier Centre, Victoria Street.

Tutorials

Mary Overtoom has finalised our Tutorials for this year. Remember that we subsidise the costs for these so the fee of $20 per tutorial is very reasonable. We start the year with Elke Bergkessel. Elke is a watercolourist from Lyttelton. She does some lovely loose work. You may have seen her attractive floral cards on sale. The dates for Elke are: Tuesday 5 June and Saturday 9 June.

In July on Tuesday 17 and Saturday 21 we have Mark Lander who will be working on our Drawing Skills and Composition. He is always an inspiration and his sessions are full of fun. Last time we had him we concluded by putting all our work into handmade paper bookcovers, which we bound with brightly coloured threads, thus taking home a really attractive record of our work. I've still got mine and it is great to look at the progression over the course of the day.

Finally, in August we are having Paula Humphries who will be taking us for Acrylics. Paula is a very popular teacher and we are lucky to have her. The dates for her tutorials are Tuesday 7 August and Saturday 11 August.

Entries are filling up fast so if you wish to attend please get your form and money to Mary asap.

Portraiture Sessions

These sessions are now underway and proving very enjoyable Monday evenings. Should you wish to attend the price is $10 per session. Please contact Rosie Pack, (03) 3139141 to confirm that space is available.

Moana Weekend

This proved to be a very enjoyable weekend despite the squalls. Our accommodation was luxurious and we had a great social time with there even being some painting done.

Library

Linda is working on addressing the outstanding loans in our library. She is concerned that there seems to be a number of books (which have been previously catalogued) missing. Please check and return any you may have.

Of particular concern are:

Watercolour Rescue	Tom Lynch
Celebrating Visual Arts	Ed Labadie
Pastel Landscapes	Barry Hopkins
Canterbury Arts Guide

Tuesday Workshops

Ngairie and Quilliam.
