January 2019

Happy New Year and welcome back to the Rangiora Art Society's new year. The RAS Christmas lunch was a resounding success and finished the RAS year very pleasantly. We hope the festive season has been a happy and restful time for you all. With a fresh start and new ideas, we look forward to seeing your art works this year. We restart our Tuesday sessions from 9:00 and to 3:00 pm on Tuesday 15 January and look forward to seeing many of you there.

Ryman Cash and Carry Exhibition: The Ryman's exhibition was again a success. We paid $1000 to Ryman's choice of charity, The Stroke Foundation. Ryman's have confirmed that they are willing to go ahead with another exhibition later in 2019 at a similar time.

RAS Committee member sought: With Tracy Parker having stepped down from the committee we would like to encourage a member to volunteer their help to support the committee. If you think you could help the RAS committee, please have a chat with one of the committee members. It is not long before we will be having our AGM and the election of officers to the RAS. Please give some thought to how you can help us all run our society as efficiently and happily as possible and do have a chat with the current committee members about how you think you could help.

2019 Workshops: We will start the year with the Linelle Stacey Acrylic painting workshop that was postponed. It will now be held on 5 March 2019. Entry form is attached to this newsletter. If there are any members who feel that they would like to lead a tutorial in 2019, please let a committee member know. We have had an offer of a pastel tutorial, please let a committee member know if you would be interested. The pastel tutorial would have to be held on a Saturday.

2019 RAS Members' Calendar: We still have a few copies of the 2019 calendar available for sale at $15. Cameo Arts have RAS calendars on sale. Stock is limited. Email Jan Campbell if you want to buy a calendar but cannot get to Cameo Arts.

RAS Library: Please check that any books or DVDs that you have borrowed from the RAS library are recorded. We are having a stock take of all RAS property and plan to complete it during January.

En Plein Air Painting: Carolyn Abernethy organised some interesting opportunities once a month on a Thursday for 2018. Carolyn has been organising the plein air group for some time but has now decided to step down from this role, so December 6 was her last outing as the Plein Air group organiser. We are very grateful for Carolyn's enthusiasm and organisation of this group. If you are keen to see RAS En Plein Air continue, we need someone to organise this group in 2019. Please speak to a committee member if that person is you.

Tuesday Workshop sessions: Due to rising prices we now find it necessary to ask participants to pay $3 each time they come from 22 January 2019. We have delayed this step as long as possible but find that costs do not match the income for these sessions.

RAS Calendar of Events: Please keep these dates in mind:

January 15, 2019     Resume Tuesday sessions at the Gospel Hall (open 9:00 am to 3:00pm)

January 22, 2019     Tuesday session at Gospel Hall
