October 2019

Spring is here with colour bursting forth everywhere. This month we welcome a new member, Ron Stroud, to our society and look forward to seeing him on Tuesdays.

Copyright: Quilliam attended the seminar at the Arts Centre, Sept 11, on Intellectual Property by Property lawyer Virginia Nicholls and has given us feedback. Basically, we all need to remember to use our own photographs or seek permission from the person whose photograph you are using when creating an artwork.

Pegasus Bay Art Show: A number of our members were successful in selling their works at this show. It was well attended, and sales were consistent with last year.

Rangiora Agricultural & Pastoral Show: Thank you to Marg and Jan who have agreed to judge the arts display at the Showgrounds and to John Paul who has offered to be a steward for the Arts display. Those of you who have entered need to make sure that your paintings are delivered to the Function Centre on Saturday morning between 8-9 am.

Rymans Cash and Carry exhibition: We are proud to announce that we will once again be hosting the North Canterbury Collective Exhibition at the Charles Upham Retirement Village. This year's event will be on the 22nd, 23rd & 24th November - we have attached the entry form with all the relevant details. Entries are due by the 5th November and open to all four art groups (Rangiora, Amberley, Kaiapoi and Waikuku). There are a limited number of panels so acceptance will be confirmed by email or phone - see entry form for full rules. The hanging of paintings is done by YOU, the artist, either between Thursday 6-7 pm or Friday morning 9-11 am, at the Charles Upham village main building. There will be an opening 'do' for artists and invited guests on Friday evening 5:30 – 7:00 pm, hosted by Rymans, all artists who enter are invited to attend with a guest.

2020 Calendars: The 2020 RAS Members' Calendar has been selling well. We have more available for sale at $15 and suggest that you get in early if you want them for Christmas presents. They are available on a Tuesday at the Gospel Hall or you can contact our lovely Treasurer, Jan Campbell, if you are unable to get to the Hall on a Tuesday.

Paintings for display in the Presbyterian Support offices: For many years, members have lent a sample of paintings to the Presbyterian Support offices and the Rangiora Hospital for display. With the upgrade to the Rangiora Hospital and new buildings there is no longer any space available there for our paintings. We now just have paintings on display in the Presbyterian Support offices. We would like to change the display in December. Those whose paintings are currently on display will have them returned. Please would members who are willing to lend a painting for this new display please contact Carmen Smart to let her know what you have available. Carmen can be contacted either at the Gospel Hall or by telephone 03 313 4919.

RAS Calendar of Events: Please keep these dates in mind:

October 1, 8, 15, 22, 29	Tuesday sessions at the Gospel Hall 9:00am – 3:00pm.
October 26	Rangiora A & P Show entries to be delivered to Jubilee Centre at Showgrounds between 8-9 am.

Attachment with this newsletter: Ryman's Exhibition Entry Form

Cash and Carry Exhibition

22nd (Opening Night) – 23rd & 24th November 2019

Charles Upham Retirement Village - Rangiora

In-order to enter this exhibition, you must be: A resident of Ryman Retirement Villages, or a financial member of either Rangiora Art Society, Kaiapoi Art Group, Amberley Art Group, or Waikuku Artists Incorporated. An Artist's acceptance into the event will be confirmed via email or phone – there are a limited number of panels and tables.

How to enter our 'Cash and Carry' exhibition: Complete Entry form (or email details) to book a panel (2.3mtr H x 1.2mtr W) or table space for jewellery, ceramics or other small items. Cost per panel is $30 ($15 per artist for shared panel). Cost per table is $15. Small display stands for unframed works will be permitted and included in the panel cost.

Payment for exhibiting: Payments must be accompanied by an entry form.

How to display works: You are required to provide a small label to show your name, title of artwork, medium and price for each item on sale. This label should have a small piece of hooked Velcro stuck to the back in order to adhere to the panel covering. If you are selling prints, cards or the like you can give the sales desk a list to help with sales information. ALL WORKS MUST BE LABELLED AND PRICED.

You are to responsible for hanging and displaying your own space using, where required, self-tapping screws (no hammers and nails).

Artists set up time is on Thursday 21st Nov at 6-7pm or Friday 22nd Nov at 9am to 11am.

A laminated sign showing your name for the top of the panel or for a table will be provided by the organising committee. There will be no printed catalogue, given that this is a cash and carry event.

Ryman anticipate significant numbers of visitors over the weekend as it will be extensively promoted, and they reserve the right to control appropriate presentation of the exhibition.

Sales: Cash or Eftpos Sales will be receipted alongside the wrapping table.

A 10% commission will be taken from sales for the Ryman's chosen charity. Sales payments (minus commission) will be made by internet banking (preferred) or cheque within 2 weeks.

Please note by entering this exhibition you accept all responsibility for insurance of your artworks whilst they are on display, Rangiora Art Society and Ryman's Retirement Village are in no way responsible for your works.

Organisation over the weekend: If you wish to volunteer your time to help with sales and wrapping it would be gratefully accepted. It will be to your advantage to be in attendance during the open hours of the exhibition so that you can talk to visitors, monitor sales and replace art works as they sell but this is not compulsory. Public viewing times are Saturday 10am to 4.30pm and Sunday 10am to 3pm. A private viewing with Artists, Ryman's residents and invited guests will take place on Friday 5.30pm to 7.30pm. You are invited to bring a guest along to this.
